Benefice

Following the movement, in Lancashire, to the third tier, the clergy would like to reiterate the fact that, currently, worship is allowed to continue with the usual protocols in place. However, whether we will continue with Holy Communion is under review. Watch this space!

Please exercise your usual common sense and if you don't feel completely safe in church then please stay home but let us know (via the contact forms at the rear of church or email/telephone) if you would like support to worship at home instead.

Benefice Magazine for Advent & Christmas

Graham is planning to produce a magazine for Advent & Christmas, hopefully out for Remembrance Sunday. Any (preferably upbeat) contributions from across the Benefice gratefully received to Graham's e-mail on page 4

Each of our churches now have a QR code poster at the entrance. If you have the NHS Covid app, you can scan this code as a record of where you have been. Please note that the app does not hold personal information. If you don't yet have the app, it is a useful tool for track and trace, so please consider downloading from google play or apple stores. It's free!

If you missed the Diocesan online conference, 'Hearts on Fire', it was superb and very uplifting. You can view quite a few of the sessions via the Blackburn Diocese YouTube channel. It comes highly recommended by the clergy!

We will be having our Wave of Prayer Service on Wednesday 21st at 1.30p.m. at St Mark's, following all the Covid safety guidelines, including the wearing of face coverings and social distancing.

The service booklet is in the centre of the Autumn edition of MU News, so you will need to bring it along.

It would be lovely to see you but if you don't feel ready to come to church, you can read through the service in the safety of your own home. Janet

Barbara Stackhouse would like to thank everyone for the lovely flowers and chocolates that she received in recognition of her many, many faithful years as organist at St Peter's. We are all extremely grateful to Barbara.

Welcome to our Harvest Service. Very grateful thanks to everybody who came yesterday to decorate the church. Special thanks to the Estate for providing the flowers.

Thank you to Helen Foster for arranging a driveway collection, this Sunday morning, for the Olive Branch. If you are at the Harvest Service today, you can also leave food donations in church. The need is very great, at our Foodbanks, so please feel free to continue to bring tins etc each Sunday.
